Para 28:- U.O.No.519/G.A.D. Dated 13th MAY 1949

1) Returned with compliments.

2. Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy may be confirmed as Deputy Commissioner of Excise with effect from 19-9-1946, against the post of the Deputy Commissioner of Excise, since revived on a permanent basis with retrospective effect from 19-9-1946, vide G.O.No.S.R.1504-1505/ED. 8-48-1 dated 15-9-1948. He may also be confirmed as Deputy Commissioner of Income-Tax against one of the posts of Deputy Commissioners of Income-Tax sanctioned in G.O.No.Fl.5991-93/I.T. 29-46-3 dated 7-2-1947 and G.O.No.Fl.2170-2255/S.T.8-48-2 dated 10-9-1948, subject to his lien in the Excise Department being removed. The emoluments drawn by him as Deputy Commissioner in each of the appointments will count for pension -- from the dates of his confirmation as Deputy Commissioner of Excise and Deputy Commissioner of Income-Tax respectively.

V.T.S.
COMPTROLLER.

2) Para 31:- Reference para 24 of the notes. It may be seen from the Comptroller's Un-officil note dated 13-5-1949, that Sri A.V. Krishnamurthi has not yet been confirmed as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax. Till his confirmation in the Income-tax Deptt., is ordered, another officer cannot be confirmed as Deputy Commissioner of Excise. This question may perhaps be taken up separately in consultation with the Commissioner of Income-tax.

	Ckr 20/11/49 13) It is evident from paras 25 and 38 of the notes in C. B. Collection No. 174-48-1 that Sri A. V. Krishnamurthy is regarded as Deputy Com. of Excise on other duty as Dy. Com. of Income-tax and the D. A. of Rs. 100/- is granted to him as such. If the proposal to confirm Sri Krishna murthy in the Income-tax Deptt. and to remove his lien in the Excise Deptt. is accepted, the D. A. of Rs. 100/- which the Officer is drawing at present for being on other duty outside his parent deptt. will have to cease unless it is continued by special sanction. Hence the recommendation for continuing the allowance treating it as a Personal allowance. Personal allowance counts for pension and is decidedly more advantageous than a Duty allowance. The proposal, if accepted, requires financial Concurrence and would be Council matter.

The proposal to confirm Sri A.V. Krishna murthi as Dy. Comr. of Income-tax, which has been agreed to both by the Comr. of Income-tax and the comptroller to Govt., may be approved.

As regards allowance kind reference is invited to the minute of the Hon for Fin & Rev dated 7-8-48 in para 25 of the notes in C.B. Correction No. 174-48 (I) and it may be seen from it that the allowance of Rs 100/- p.m. was given to Sri krishna murthi as Dy. Comr. of Ex. on other duty as Dy. Comr. of Income-tax. With his confirmation as Dy. Comr. of Income-tax he ceases to have a lien in the Excise Dept. and with this he will have to forgo the allowance.

The present proposal is to continue it to be drawn by Sri Krishna Murthi by treating it as personal allowance. In September 1944, Sri A.V. Krishna murthi was appointed Dy. Comr. of Ex. on a pay of Rs 500-40/2-700. The pay of the appointment of Dy. Comr. of Excise was revised from Rs 500-40/2-700 to Rs 600-50/2-800 and Sri Krishna murthy was given a pay of Rs 600- in the grade from 1-10-46 and for calculating the period for increments Sri Krishna Murthy was deemed to have commenced in that grade from 1-8-46 (vide G.O. No. 1383-57 CB 118-46-1 dated 18.9.46). Subsequently he was given the maximum pay of the grade of Rs 600-50/2-800 viz Rs 800 with effect from 1.10.47 (vide G.O. No. 3345-47/CB 174-48-1 dated 11.11.48). He has since been granted extension of service for one year from 12-12-49, the date of his superannuation. In addition to the above concessions already drawn to this officer it is now proposed to continue the duty allowance treating it as Personal Allowance. The Personal allowance counts for pension while duty allowance does not. It is therefore more advantageous than duty allowance. Since the officer has been treated well as noted in para 16 the grant of a personal allowance does not appear to arise.

17) As this office was granted a duty allowance on his appointment as Dy. Comr of Income-tax and as he continues to perform the same duties even after confirmation, it does not appear to be fair to take away the allowance as a result of confirmation ~~already~~ speedily when it does not help him financially. In view of this the question of continuance of the duty allowance deserves favourable consideration. Fin. Deptt may also be consulted.

Subject:- Proposal to confirm Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax and to permit him to draw a duty allowance of Rs.100/- p.m.

At present there are four posts of Deputy Commissioners of Income-tax and they are being held by the following Officers:-

(1) Sri N. Ramaswamiya;
(2) Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy;
(3) Janab M. Abdul Azeez;
(4) Sri L. Kantaraj Urs.

Of these (1), (3) and (4) are the Officers of the Revenue Department, the first two being Deputy Commissioners and the last being a Senior Assistant Commissioner.

In May 1946 Sri A.V. Krishna Murthy who was a Deputy Commissioner of Excise was appointed Additional Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax Department and has continued in the Income-tax Department since then; but his lien in the Excise Department has been continued. In September 1949, Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy was confirmed as Deputy Commissioner of Excise with effect from 19th September 1946 against the post sanctioned in Government Order No.R.R.1504-09/E.D.C-48-1 dated 15th September 1948 and continued to work as Deputy Commissioner of Income-Tax in the Income-tax Department. Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy is getting his grade pay as Deputy Commissioner of Excise plus a duty allowance of Rs.100/- p.m.

Sri C.D. Arasaiya was appointed as Deputy Commissioner of Excise in September 1948 in made S.P.T. vice Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy, O.C.D. in the Income-tax Department with effect from 15th September 1946.

The Comptroller to Government who was consulted regarding the confirmation of Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy as Deputy Commissioner of Excise has suggested as under:-

"Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy may be confirmed as Deputy Commissioner of Excise with effect from 19th September 1946, against the post of the Deputy Commissioner of Excise, since revived on a permanent basis with retrospective effect from 19th September 1946 vide G.O.No.R.R.1504-1505/E.D.C-48-1 dated 15th September 1948.

Circulation Note--Contn. Sheet:—

He may also be confirmed as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax against one of the posts of Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax sanctioned in G.O.No.Fi.5991-93/I.T.39-45-3 dated 7th February 1947 and G.O.No. Fi.2170-2255/S.F.C-40-2 dated 10th September 1948, subject to his lien in the Excise Department being removed. The emoluments drawn by him as Deputy Commissioner in each of the appointments will count for pension — from the dates of his confirmation as Deputy Commissioner of Excise, and Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax respectively."

The Commissioner of Income-tax who was consulted regarding the confirmation of Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax has stated as under:-

"I agree in the proposal to confirm Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax and to remove his lien in the Excise Department. Since this involves the loss of duty allowance of Rs.100/- p.m. given to him in the Excise Department, which he has been permitted to draw, in his present capacity, the case may be sanctioned to be drawn by him by treating it as personal allowance."

As Sri Krishnamurthy was granted a duty allowance on his appointment as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax and as he continues to perform the same duties even after confirmation, it does not appear to be fair to take away the allowance as a result of confirmation.

It is now proposed to confirm Sri A.V. Krishnamurthy as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax and to remove his lien in the Excise Department and to permit him to draw a duty allowance of Rs.100/- p.m. as Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax.

The proposal has been agreed to by the Financial Secretary and approved by the Minister for Finance and Industries.

It has been ordered by the Chief Minister that the matter may be disposed of by circulation.

My dear Sir,

In my Unofficial Reply No.C.159/49-50 dated 16th November 1949 to the Secretariat reference regarding the confirmation of Sri A. V. Krishnamurthy as Deputy Commissioner of Incometax I had recommended that the Duty Allowance of Rs.100 per mensem granted to him as Deputy Commissioner of Excise and permitted to be drawn by him in his present capacity of Deputy Commissioner of Incometax may be treated as Personal Allowance. Orders of Government on the above proposal are awaited. In the meanwhile, however, the post of Deputy Commissioner of Excise is understood to have been abolished. Unless therefore the allowance in question is treated as Personal with effect from the date of the abolition of the post of Deputy Commissioner of Excise, Sri A. V. Krishnamurthy stands to suffer in his emoluments immediately and his position after his transfer to the Central Government from 1st April 1950 will also be adversely affected. Such unintended and entirely unmerited result can be prevented by treating the allowance granted to Sri A. V. Krishnamurthy as Personal to him as already recommended. Since the recommendation involves no fresh financial commitment, Government may be pleased to approve of the same very early, since Sri A. V. Krishnamurthy is to be transferred to the Central Government on 1st April 1950 and any orders in his case have to be passed well before that date.

Yours sincerely,
